Care homes for the 21st century

New Century Care has 27 care homes across the country, including 12 homes in the South of England. Each home offers individual expertise covering categories from general nursing through to dementia and mental health.

All the homes are professionally run with a warm and caring atmosphere and aim to ensure the highest standard of personal care and an enhanced quality of life for all residents.

New Century Care homes offer a wide variety of activities, ranging from days out by the sea, in-home bingo and visits from a hairdresser through to afternoon tea in the lounge.

Staff are on hand at all times to provide not only a professional service, but also a friendly and sympathetic ear. Staff are trained to the highest standards and pride themselves in the care they provide to all guests.

Buxton Lodge Care Home in Caterham on the Hill is a very friendly, modern home offering planned individual care equipped to cater for self-care or higher dependency needs in a safe environment.

Buxton Lodge has plenty on offer, such as excellent accommodation, delicious home-cooked food and all the help needed to make residents comfortable. It is very important to them that all residents feel relaxed and welcome, and that relatives are confident in the support and care they maintain.

Last year Buxton Lodge underwent a complete extension and refurbishment programme, with an additional eight beds available, and has since been awarded two stars (good) by the Care Quality Commission.

Buxton Lodge has acquired a reputation for the highest standards of care, with the emphasis on quality of life in a safe, manageable and comfortable environment.

The nursing care combines the highest degree of professionalism with friendliness, courtesy and sensitivity. All staff are committed to helping residents enjoy the very best quality of life of which they are capable.
